BOOKS - STORE AND STOREHOUSE

Editor Jack P. Etheridge
 Assistants Harry McLean
 Joe Vance

Dr. Chalmers G. Davidson has announced that the LIBRARY would observe the hours of 10 - 12 A.M., and 2 - 10 P.M. daily. Librarian Davidson, Custodian of the local Castle of Culture, also added that Saturday afternoon hours would be until 6 P.M. only. Books may be checked out at any time that the library is open.

Perhaps a word of explanation of, and introduction to the YLDGAT is in order here in this, its first appearance.

In the first place we desire for this to be an interesting, informative, and perhaps sometimes humorous publication. It is our hope that you will make it so. Since there are no literary requirements to stifle the budding author here, it makes little difference to the YLDGAT about the what, where, or when of a news article. If you've got a good story, or a bit of news, or even a beef about something, we want it, and want it expressed in the YLDGAT.

The nature of Summer School is such that oftentimes there is no opportunity to have announcements made public when desired, or lost books, etc., inquired for. One of the chief functions of the YLDGAT then shall be to serve as a medium for announcements, lost and found articles, and things of that nature.

The YLDGAT is in great need of a few men who will volunteer to serve as typists and to serve on the feature staff so that we can more effectively get the news "hot off the press", and have it presented as neatly and as accurately as possible. If you find it possible to help please see the editor or Bill McLean.

The YLDGAT is financed and sponsored by your Y.M.C.A. It is intended as another student service, and we urgently desire the benefit of your criticism and suggestions.

The BOOK STORE will be open each day, Monday through Friday, from 9:15 to 9:45 A.M. and from 3:00 to 3:15 P.M.

Books for all courses are available here, as are paper, pencils, notebooks and other school equipment.

PROF. AND MRS. MOEHRLEN TO EUROPE

Professor and Mrs. Robert Moehren sailed from Norfolk June 8 for Antwerp, and thence to France, where Prof. Moehren will spend some seven weeks in study of the 18th Century French organ. During their stay in Europe the Moehren's will visit several countries, including England and Belgium, where Professor Moehren will give two organ recitals.

The intensive study carried on by Prof. Moehren is done under a Carnegie Foundation Fellowship. Mr. Moehren is considered one of the outstanding organists in the country.

STUDENT STORE HOURS

In accordance with its policy of getting the first news first, the YLDGAT announces the hours of the Student Store, received in a private interview. It was reported exclusively to this paper that the Stud will not be open for business on Sunday. It will, however, accommodate its genteel clientele on the following hours during the week: 9:15 to 11:15 A.M.; 1:30 to 5:30 and 8:00 to 11:00 P.M.
