HAIL THE MIGHTY CONQUEROR

You might think you been sweating it out, but you ain't seen nothing." Davidson has a contingent of hot, and "dusty" but nonetheless hearty men at Fort Benning. The advanced ROTC students are at the half way mark in their training this week. Last week was largely spent on the firing range and everyone qualified, notwithstanding an occasional "Figgie's Drivers," waved unceremoniously at the frustrated marksman.

Summer camp will adjourn the last of July and our mighty Wildcats will return to the Hill as seasoned (well done, that is) veterans.

AROUND THE PITS

Cooper and Clark using Izzy's leg by mistake as the post, Izzy thereupon challenging the terrific twosome, Leighton, in his own inimitable way putting two wringers on at time, "Quiley" coolly calculating each throw.

MOVIES ** JULY 9 - JULY 17

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"The Fighting 69th"

Pat O'Brien - James Cagney

MONDAY AND TUESDAY

"Summer Holiday"

Mickey Rooney - Gloria DeHaven

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

"Green Grass of Wyoming"

Peggy Cummins - Charles Coburn

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"Alibi a Gentleman"

Wallace Beery - Tom Drake

Today the season comes to a close and West already has the victory wrapped up in a package. With but one loss the Westerns have now have only to worry about their bout with the ALL-STAR team in the final game, to be played Monday, July 12. The ALL-STARs will be chosen by the losing team managers in an all out effort to slow down the roaring Western machine, whose conductor is Hugh Hill. (The reader will recall a similar recent attempt to stop a powerful machine - led by an equally talented boss man.) Hugh reports that he employs no brekaker on his victory train.

Today's contest between the Towners and West should certainly be a battle. The old time Townsmen are out for revenge, for twice they have gone down under the bats of the Westerners. Georgia's talented team, who gave West it's only defeat, turned on the heat yesterday and free for all with the Townsmen. Youth must have been the factor in the meet, for Georgia emerged decidedly victorious with the wild score of 21-12. The sweating Watters have suffered from a severe nonpower shortage and have been unable so far to get into stride. They vow to end the season right however, according to manager Jim Briggs, by showing Georgia some dust today.

The standings, including games played Wednesday, July 7, are:

TEAM	WON	LOST	PCT.
West	7	1	.875
Town	6	2	.750
Georgia	3	5	.375
Watts	0	3	.000

McLenn Mitchell has acted as one of the faithful and true umpires and League President Charley Parker has announced that gentleman will be official Umpire for the West - ALL-STAR game. He is well known for his staunch and weighty decisions.

Only a short short piece to these were American troops, in thin a' peace, whose lives were expendable. These men were in a place where no hope remained for escape if the attack of the enemy was sudden and in force. These troops of course, were on 31st, just eight short years ago the American people were only mildly interested in the news of international life, and had no idea of the seriousness of the war with things no idea that thousands of American citizens were in danger of being killed or captured. The survivors of them were shortly disposed of after Dec. 7, 1941, but the horrible deaths, the lives were ruined after spending years in these prison camps. And the more in our country and our congress to have we would not forget.

It is really America's troops are in a hopeless position. Again American citizens are expendable. Our own men, our thousands of soldiers in Berlin have no more than a ghost of a chance if Russia attacks. Completely surrounded and helpless, it would be only a matter of hours for them to be slaughtered, or put on trains to Siberia.

We've again to take our interest in American troops only? What? Could it possibly be that we must wait for the overt act to occur? Surely we must now know that millions can be killed simply by our selfish and my indifference. This is not academic, it is real, it is as real as the ghastly look of a bomb smoldering village, the stench of the field of blood, battle.

The situation in Berlin is serious. We must not wait until it is too late, we must order him to make it, the world is a dangerous soldier should.
