

IMPORTANT ISSUE TO BE FACED BY COUNCIL SOON

SURPRISE, SURPRISE!
 WE'RE GETTING A HOLIDAY!

Due to the fact that Threddon's Fishing Almanac and Handy Guide Book states that Monday, July 1, will be an excellent day for salt water fishing, the Administrative Council of Davidson College has announced that absolutely no classes will be held on that date.

Also, several professors teaching non-laboratory courses have announced that a seminar on the proper use of lures (fishing lures, of course) will be held on a strictly voluntary basis on Saturday, June 29, at Myrtle Beach, S. C. These professors asked that their names not be made known to the general public. However, it may be profitable for each interested student to check with his instructor for further information concerning this seminar.

THE DANCE PLANNED

"The Five Men," the distinguished dance band, has contracted to perform at the Davidson College Student Union for the semi-formal Mid-Summer Dance to be held Saturday, July 20, between the hours of 8:00-11:30 p. m.

The dance will take place on the patio of the Union. Although the motif for the dance is being kept a secret, those who remember last year's Mid-Summer Dance will recall the most attractive setting (i.e. checked table cloths, candles in bottles, Chinese lanterns, cute bandstand, and that dark, dark corner) for that occasion.

Tickets will be sold in the near future by door-to-door agents.

So write that gal -- tell her to mark July 20 in her date book for this pleasurable night.

P. S. Be there, pre-Freshmen! Get acquainted with D. C.'s socialites.

A group of enterprising students have decided that the affairs of this school are in a most deplorable and chaotic condition, and that drastic action must be taken in order to protect the best interests of the SUMMER SCHOOL Student Body. This action comes in the form of a resolution drawn up by these students in a closed session at a nearby dispensary of liquid refreshment. This resolution will be presented to the SUMMER SCHOOL Student Council at its next meeting, and this reporter is happy to assure the wise and worthy petitioners of the surety of favorable consideration by the Council, especially in view of the overwhelming opinion in its favor.

The resolution follows:

A RESOLUTION TO REMEDY AN INTOLERABLE SITUATION

Whereas, the schedule of activities now prevailing on this campus is a serious hindrance to the enjoyment of vacationing Davidson College student body members now on the campus, and

Whereas, this aforementioned schedule is giving a totally false impression of Davidson College as it really is to those persons who chose to come here from other schools, as well as to those who are here as Freshmen, and

Whereas, the noise and heat of the campus make it totally impossible to do anything more strenuous than to calmly sip cool "non-carbonated" beverages, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED:

(1) that those activities called "classes" shall henceforth and forthwith cease and desist, any provision of the College Catalogue notwithstanding, and

(2) that a program of athletic activities shall be instituted during the hours heretofore occupied by those "classes", on a strictly voluntary

IMPORTANT ISSUE (CONTR. FROM #1)

The usual editorial column has been deleted in order that we might fully publish the momentous petition that is soon to be presented to the SUMMER SCHOOL Student Council. Incidentally, it is our editorial policy to be fully in favor of this proposed change as stated in the petition.

basis, and

(3) that a series of compulsory classes be instituted in the Art of Relaxation; which classes to be taught by Dr. Herman Vincent Peale during that period now occupied by Chapel activities, and

(4) that any student desiring non-athletic amusement equipment such as earth movers, building wreckers, steam rollers, or any equipment belonging to the Weston Waterproofing Co., should be provided with the same.

This resolution to have full and immediate force, any existing rules and/or regulations notwithstanding.

(Signed by 150 members of the SUMMER SCHOOL Student Body, this petition may be viewed in room # 280, Self-Dormitory, between the hours of 3:00 - 4:00 a. m., by any interested party.)

QUESTION: WOULD YOU FAVOR PLACING THE FULL SCHOOL YEAR ON A SUMMER SCHOOL BASIS? (THAT IS, CONCENTRATING ON ONE COURSE FOR SIX WEEKS, FINISHING IT, AND THEN MOVING ON TO THE NEXT)

Robert Wood: I would not favor it because the world is not full of liberal arts colleges. There would be no correlation of subjects.

Bob Martin: No. This would not give time for research and experimentation. These are becoming monotonous.

Henry Shaw: I favor our present committee and not only do the students get more out of the course, but he has more time for thinking and for extra-curricular activities.

Jim Reynolds: I favor the intensification of courses because specialization leads to a better understanding of the subject matter.

Charles Harvey: I favor it but I think there would be too many conflicting problems, conflicting courses, etc., to make it feasible.

Bob Shoffner: I'm in favor of it. Hey, see that one chick crossing the campus?

(SOCIAL CRITIC)

Brice when one sits down at a bridge table with his friends to play a hand of bridge with friends or the enemies, either one of two procedures may be followed: the players may play bridge or they may converse, but they must do both.

Nothing can more frustrate a good player than to find the other players discuss each individual's strategy, cards, or voids of suit.

Therefore, when one sits down to play with a partner with whom he is unfamiliar, when he can't get a partner back to table, when he has had one deal played and just finished, one has had to play a new partner, for one has to play through night. Play in the Union and one will see what I say.
