Dr. Joseph T. Drake, professor of biology, recently moved into his new home in the faculty housing development, next door to Dr. Berry. It is a very modernistic and attractive house on what Dr. Bertrand Russell fondly calls "Morty Mountain." Congratulations, Dr. Drake.

Dr. Reid, professor of history, is leaving Davidson during the last of this month, with his family, for a drive to California. We guess that editorially that will be for all practical purposes Dr. Reid's real sell-off. Good luck, Dr. Reid.

An aged, half-blind negro citizen of this community, a Mr. William McCloud, in behalf of your editor took it upon himself to go around to the various offices on the campus, if anyone in the place should want to sell or to whom to sell.

Mr. McCloud is William Henry Vanderbilt's valet, and says he thinks Mr. Vanderbilt will be back in the autumn to Dr. Johnston's store, which is located on the first floor of the Chambers building. It will be on the north side of the street.

We have recently had the walk in front of the Chambers building repaired, and we hope that service will prove as satisfactory as it was under the former management, even that it may improve, if possible. Any student wishing to make helpful suggestions or complaints with regard to this matter may contact Mr. C. D. Smith, Mr. Bob Lewis, Mr. Coleman, or Ken Burns.

The Union Movie Committee promises us more good movies to come. Prospective ones include: The Last Time I Saw Paris, Rebel Without a Cause, Halls of Montezuma, Beau Brummel, and The Tender Trap.

ROBERT [illegible] ANSWERS YOUR QUESTIONS.

Dear Bob Paille,
The other night I went with some fellow students to a moving picture theater in Greenville. They had their sinful French movies, which kept misbehaving. You would think they had no breeding. I'm so embarrassed. What shall I do? Lamont Cranston.

Dear Lamont, Tell me where I can get tickets!

Dear Bob Paille,
I'm trying to hard to pass my course in Hygienic Health 17, but I simply cannot. What shall I do? Stupid.

Dear Stupid, Flunk.

What is a faculty committee?
It is a group of people who can see three meanings in a college joke that only has two.
