Costs Are Set For College Renovation

A quarter of a million dollars was set yesterday as the figure for the operation and renovation of the Alex Johnson Dormitory during 1966-67.

President H. Frank Davidson said the figure was set by the Board of Trustees. The president said that the figure was based on a careful analysis of the needs of the dormitory and the college.

The figure includes funds for the construction of a new wing, which will be added to the existing dormitory. The new wing will provide additional space for dormitory residents and will improve the overall living conditions.

The figure also includes funds for the renovation of the existing dormitory. The renovation will include new windows, new flooring, and new plumbing.

The figure for the renovation is in addition to the funds that have already been set aside for the operation of the dormitory.

The figure is expected to be sufficient to cover all costs associated with the operation and renovation of the dormitory during the 1966-67 academic year.

No Reading Room To Proceed Examinations

There will be no reading room for the present in the dormitory. All students will be required to go to the library for all examinations.

The decision was made by the Board of Trustees after careful consideration of the matter. The trustees believe that the reading room is not essential to the academic program and that the library is more than sufficient for all purposes.

The decision will be effective immediately and will apply to all examinations in the present year.

A Lack Of Communication

Few people will deny that the present phone system in use is inadequate and that the student body should have something better than a key-punched telephone to use. Many students, however, are not aware that this is not true and that their attitudes will radically affect David- son's reputation in the area. It is their responsibility to contribute to a new system.

The current system utilizes the old Bell Telephone service that will affect our athletic program. The Bell Telephone corporation is increasing the number of hours during which there are delays. This is due to the fact that the customers wish to reduce their service and to increase telephone rates. This is due to the fact that our school is a small student body and that there are many people who are unhappy with the old Bell service.

We do not mean to suggest that all Bell Telephone customers are unhappy with the present service. In fact, we believe that many are still quite satisfied with the service that they receive. However, we do not think that the present system is adequate for all needs.

A Change Of Attitude

We have been asked to do our part in fostering a spirit of change and development at Davidson College. It is important that we recognize the potential of this movement and that we take an active role in it. It is important that we understand the current situation and that we are willing to make changes in our attitudes.

Division has not and never will solve this problem. The solution lies in the willingness of the community to work together to solve this problem. We are confident that this Division can be solved if we all work together.

We are confident that this Division can be solved if we all work together. We are confident that we can do this if we are willing to put our differences aside and work towards a common goal.

They see three locks, but they cannot open them.

A LOST OPPORTUNITY

Tennis Coach Harry Fagelman lost two nationally-ranked varsity players this past weekend because they couldn’t afford scholarships. Both felt that pursuing tennis at the college level was financially out of their reach.

The case seems ridiculous to me that Davidson has such an easy opportunity to field one of the best tennis teams in the country, but it missed out on one of its own opportunities to go there.

If this were Pennock College and couldn’t afford financial aid, then this situation might be more understandable. But I don’t think anyone would see that Davidson didn’t have the financial aid programs to meet their tennis player needs.

Ten opportunities on the Wildcat schedule give financial aid that would have been available to both of these teams, but I can’t even begin to heal such sensibility.

Coach Fagelman has managed somewhat phenomenal student-tennis facilities. But they’d still be next to Davidson. With a single scholarship there is no telling what could have been.

I guess that there are good reasons for not giving the financial aid. I would think varsity tennis, like Davidson’s academic standards would fall drastically with ten

Jim Crow.

However, there’s probably even more Biblical references that would show that financial aid is even more relevant. It’s a sin to keep money from people in need of it.

I guess that it is best to drill on slightly better than we play, and do our best to win within our limits and learn to lose to the “rulers” rather than “professionals” and “tigers” of the world. That would make us better to play wise wise course.

MORE ALL-STAR

The Wildcats’ basketball team recently named an all-star team which included the following:

Bill Roddy, varsity; Earl Porter, varsity; Bill Bradley, varsity; and Bill Bradley of Princeton being unanimously chosen on the all-star team.

Ohio State’s All-American center, Gary Bradby, selected by the American Basketball Writers, will be honored by the team.

Tied for the 5th position were guard Steve Cowart of 15, and Woodrow Schultz of 15.

Brady at center, Buckley and Bradley at the forward positions, and Cowart at the guard position, would make a formidable team, and likely trip a few of their better teams.

The team could hold its own against any five around.

For the fourth or better chance at the top, the Cats must be tripled from 50 to 153. Wildcat first baseman Riley Graven was rumored by some to have returned.

The status of his place in the lineup is the only value in the story line I have for the team.

Netn Fall To Duke, Clobber Wake, Furman

Coach Harry Fagelman’s Wildcat rotters, playing through two important opponents, fell victim to Duke and Wake Forest this past weekend, bringing their overall record to 13-12 for the season.

Seeded in the bottom half of the bracket, the Cats had to take on the state’s top team. The victory over Wake Forest was the Cats’ highest, as they were dropped by 12 points.

The Cats fell to Duke, and Wake Forest, losing all but one game in the 13-12 season.
