HOME NOTES.

Many commencement dots are necessarily deferred until next week.

The moon rises very late now, and the street lamps are very convenient to the traveling public.

Somehow a big pile of money was lost from a registered letter, between this place and Richmond, Va. We will have more to say about it next week.

An interesting letter has been received from our regular Brooklyn correspondent, and will be published next week.

Mr. Haughton, the express messenger of the A. T. & O road has been transferred to another road, and his place filled by Mr. Morrison of Statesville.

MOORESVILLE NOTES.

Cor. of the Enterprise.

While Mr. Mereus was driving out of town Thursday, the horse which he was driving, became frightened and threw him out of the buggy. His head was dashed against a fence, and several severe wounds were inflicted thereby.

Prof. A. Leazer is teaching in the Normal School at Chapel Hill.

Mr. J. C. McNeely, of this place, recently graduated in eleven weeks at King's Mountain Business College. This is the shortest time, we are told, that is on record at the College.

There are several severe cases of sickness in town.

Mr. Tom Hall has opened an ice cream and lemonade saloon in town.

GRAND SOCIAL EVENT.

How Thursday Night Was Spent at the Society Halls—How Some of the Ladies Were Dressed.

Although the commencement exercises were over Thursday morning, still, to the young people at least, the best was yet to come. The delightful chat, promenades and so forth, are considered by some to be the most enjoyable features of commencement. The rain which came up about 9 o'clock partially reduced the pleasures of the evening, but the ladies seemed to defy the elements, and carefully noticed the rain at all. A great many elegant costumes were worn, and although we are not experienced in that line of reporting, with the help of a lady friend, we will mention a few of them.

Miss Williams, of Fayetteville, wore a shrimp pink satin, with garnet velvet and lace; diamond ornaments.

Miss Alice Wilson, of Morganton; white satin, double point, hand painted, diamond ornaments.

Miss Jane Williams, of Fayetteville; white brocaded satin and lace, pearl ornaments.

Miss Murchison, of Fayetteville, ex-blood satin and lace, diamond ornaments.

Miss Minnie Helper, of Davidson College; lovely mull and white lace, pearl ornaments.

Miss Stewart, of Cincinnati, Ohio; cream-colored nuns' veiling and lace, diamond ornaments.

Miss Williams, of Wilmington; white satin and lace, diamond ornaments.

Miss Dowd, of Charlotte, shrimp pink, brocade satin, hand embroidered, trimmed with lace.

A large number of ladies wore beautiful tulip and lawn dresses, with gold ornaments.

The fortunate recipients of the marshall regalias are named below, together with the names of the marshals:

Mr. Shepherd Nash presented the handsome chief marshal's regalia to Miss Janie Williams, of Fayetteville. Mr. D. Jennings presented his regalia to Miss Minnie Helper, of Davidson College. Mr. W. S. Bankoney, to Miss Lillie Miller of Charlotte. Mr. R. D. Ross, to Miss Loia Spencer of Charlotte. Mr. A. M. Morris, to Miss Nancy Dowd of Charlotte. Mr. A. E. Pecker, to Miss Kate Stewart of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. Williamson, to Miss Julia Dowd of Charlotte, and Mr. W. F. Faison, to Miss Murchison of Fayetteville.

It was not until long after midnight, that the party broke up and the ladies went home.

Davidson is ahead. A visitor at the recent commencement here, drank 37 glasses of soda water in one day, by actual count.

Mr. F. W. Potts is rusticking near Bethel Church.

THE CLOSING EXERCISES.

The Forty-sixth Collegiate Year of Davidson College, Comes to a Successful Termination—The Exercises Thursday Morning.

Long before the closing exercises of the College year were begun, last Thursday, numbers of people who had arrived from the surrounding country, and the trains from Charlotte and Statesville brought many more. At 11 o'clock the procession of Trustees, Faculty and students, headed by the Salem band marched to the commencement hall. The large hall was already nearly full, and the students and others who formed the procession completely filled it. Every available seat was occupied, and a large number was obliged to stand. The following is the programme which was exactly carried out:

Oration—Lord Byron, Richard W. Culbertson, Woodleaf, N. C.

Oration—The Manufacturing South, Leonard W. Dike, Sumter, S. C.

Philosophical Oration—The Planet Mars, Willie N. Mebane, Greensboro, N. C.

The Presentation of Prizes, Degrees Conferred.

Valedictory Oration—The Tendencies of Modern Physical Science, John W. Laflerty, Davidson College, N. C.

Benediction.

Some of the floral testimonials of appreciation bestowed on the orators were very fine indeed. The speech of Mr. L. W. Dick was especially spoken of by those competent to judge, as being very fine.

Gov. Jarvis was present, and had consented to deliver the medals. The names of the successful competitors for the Latin, Greek and mathematics medals were already known to the public, but the contest for the oratory medal had taken place Wednesday night, and the committee appointed to determine the merits of the speeches had not announced their decision. When Dr. Hepburn announced that the prize had been awarded to Mr. B. T. Wilson, of Maysville, S. C., the applause was deafening. Gov. Jarvis, after a few remarks, presented the prizes as follows:

Bolton Medal—Greek, E. B. McGilvary, Chiang Mai, Siam.

Fowle Medal—Oratory, Benjamin F. Wilson, Maysville, S. C.

HONOR ROLL.

The Honor Roll, of those who have attained the “First Honor” Grade, for 1882-83, was read by the President as follows:

Junior Class—E. B. McGilvary, Chiang Mai, Siam; S. E. Chandler, Maysville, S. C.; Chas. A. Smith, Greensboro, N. C.

Sophomore Class—J. W. Siler, Franklin, N. C.; Wm. F. Stevenson, Statesville, N. C.

Freshman Class—Hugh A. Grey, Jr., Hopewell, N. C.; J. A. McCollum, La Grange, Ga.; J. M. Bernhardt, Lenoir, N. C.

Sub-Freshman Class—O. N. Brown, Davidson College, N. C.; E. L. Siler, Franklin, N. C.

HONORARY DEGREES.

President Hepburn then announced that the college had conferred the following honorary degrees:

L. L. D. upon Prof. H. E. Shepherd, of Charleston, S. C.

and upon Rev. James Woodrow, of Columbia, S. C.

A. M. on Prof. W. S. Moore, of Walthall, S. C.

and Rev. J. M. Morrison, of Louisville, Ky.

Diplomas were delivered to the following graduates with the degree of A. B.:

Rockwell Medal—Latin, Wm. R. Gregory, Hopewell, N. C.

IN MEMORIAM.

Eumenian Hall, Davidson College.

The Eumenian Society assembled this evening and adopted the following:

Whereas, God, in His Providence, has come into our midst and laid His afflicting hand upon us, in removing by death our beloved friend, fellow student and brother Eumenian, T. B. Mikkell, we, the society, would offer, as the last tribute of our love and admiration, these resolutions:

Resolved, 1st, That, although but nine months have elapsed since our lamented brother became one of our number, still this brief time has been sufficient to cause us to feel this strong attachment for him which we feel toward so many that we are called upon to give him up. His bright, cheerful face, his kindly bearing, his courteous behavior to all won our hearts from the first, and here is it for us to realize that he will gladden us with his presence no more.

2nd, That while we miss him and mourn his loss as a friend and companion, our society has also sustained the loss of one of its most valuable members. His prompt discharge of all duties, his active interest in his welfare made him one whom the society delighted to honor, and in calling him recently to one of his high offices, he had no doubt only "begun to plant" him.

3rd, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved family in this hour of their sore affliction, and would remind them of the hope that comforts us through all this trying time—the hope that He has given "His beloved sleep."

4th, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and also that they be published in the Southern Presbyterian, North Carolina Presbyterian, Southern Watchman and Southern, and the Davidson College Enterprise.
