Fast passenger trains will be put back on this road soon.

Mr. T. G. Brown, a prominent merchant of Huntersville, died on Monday.

Remember, subscribe and advertise in this paper, it will pay you.

Mr. DeWolfe withdrew from the municipal race before the election.

Mr. Miles Henderson, of Columbia Seminary, was in town last Friday.

The election is over, and the great excitement incident thereto has subsided.

Rev. S. Taylor Martin was in town, this week, on his way from Mecklenburg presbytery.

Hon. T. C. Manning, of Louisiana, is the annual orator for the Chapel Hill commencement.

The D. C. Volunteers were out on election day, probably for the purpose of seeing that voters were not bullied.

Mr. R. A. Brady has been confined to his bed for several weeks. We hope that he will soon be better.

The joint stock company, owners and proprietors of the college goat, had its (the goat's) photograph taken the other day.

Mr. S. C. Scofield has just received a large invoice of the popular and celebrated "Scofield's Don" cigars. This is one of the most popular cigars on the market.

Many citizens of this place expressed their regret that Mr. Jack H. Stinson declined to run for mayor.

Little Frank, a son of Prof. W. J. Martin, is very sick. The doctors think he has pleurisy. Dr. Jones, of Charlotte, was summoned on Monday to attend him.

Mr. Jno. F. Sloan's new dwelling house will soon be completed, and will add greatly to the appearance of the upper end of town.

The growth of the Presbyterian Sunday school, under the superintendency of Mr. S. R. Neel, has been remarkable. The number of scholars is larger now than ever before.

The D. C. Volunteers turned out in full on Monday and had their photos taken. They certainly presented a military appearance.

The Concord Register relates the circumstances of the murder of a negro woman near China Grove, Rowan county, who the murderer is, is uncertain.

Communion services were held in the Presbyterian church last Sunday. Dr. Miller preached Saturday night and Sunday morning, and Rev. S. Taylor Martin preached Sunday night.

Mr. W. S. Cooper, photographic artist, has pitched his tent in the grove south of the College, and promises to take the photos of our citizens in the best style.

We wish to say again to the students, do not hesitate to subscribe now, for we can send the ENTERPRISE to you by mail to any part of the United States.

The Diamond Cement.

A fellow was in town, a month or more ago, who sold a preparation called "Diamond Cement" to several of the merchants here, and promised to advertise it in the ENTERPRISE for three months as an inducement to them. We have not yet seen or heard of him, and it seems probable that the merchants were taken in about the advertising.

The following is the official schedule for the excursion train to be run to-day to the fete:

About the Fete.

The all-absorbing topic of conversation at present among the students is the fete champetre which takes place to-night, May 11th. The preparations have been carried on upon a much larger scale this year than last, and the number of visitors will be considerably larger. The visiting young ladies will be cared for at private houses until after supper, when the young men will completely monopolize them for the remainder of the evening. Although the ladies are not expected to come here for the purpose of eating, yet the "refreshment committee" has not been idle, and when the visitors begin to feel hungry, they will find an elegant repast awaiting them.

Mr. Marcellus Sloan has returned from Texas.
A QUIET ELECTION.

A Complete Change in the Board of Aldermen—No Opposition to the Regular Democratic Ticket—The Result in Full.

The municipal election passed off very quietly on Monday last. Almost everybody seemed to forget that it was election day, and little interest was manifested in the result. As no opposition candidate was put in the field, many people thought that it was not worth while to vote. When the book closed Saturday night, 100 persons had registered, and of these only 45 voted. Mr. Williams was again elected to the office of Mayor, but the old Board of Aldermen was succeeded by an entirely new board. The following shows the number of votes cast for each candidate:

FOR MAYOR.

W. P. Williams .......... 44
Jas. Allison .......... 1
Jack H. Stinson .......... 0

FOR ALDERMEN.

W. A. Brown .......... 44
S. R. Noel .......... 45
S. C. Scofield .......... 45
M. W. Crawford .......... 45
J. H. Sampson .......... 45

The five gentlemen constitute a new Board of Aldermen. These are all progressive men and will, we think, serve the people honestly and well. The judges of the election were, Jas. Allison, S. R. Noel, and J. D. Brown.

The municipal election turned out finely for the Democracy in Charlotte on Monday. Mr. W. C. Maxwell was elected by 867 majority, and every one of the aldermen is a democrat.

According to the Newton Enterprise, the Normal School at that place will open June 26th.

The spire of the Charlotte First Presbyterian church has been torn down.

The storm of last week played havoc with everything. The new bridge over the Catawba river, on the Chester & Cheraw Narrow Gauge Railroad, was carried away by the water.

Remember, whenever you want job printing of any kind done, leave it at the Enterprise office and it will be neatly and quickly executed.

The Moore Gazette, published at Carthage, N. C., said the mad dog, which was killed in church here some weeks ago, after being disabled by two pistol shots, was "dispatched with a cake."

Isn't the baseball season about here? Can't we have a match game or two?

"Spectator" had a long article in the Journal-Observer about the entertainment of the academy.

Who was the first man whom we know to have been applauded?—Saranson when he brought down the house.

A New York girl has been arrested while disguised as old woman. The old woman disguised as a girl is still at large.

Louisville Courier Journal.

A while ago a party of lynchers postponed the hanging five minutes to allow the victim time to finish smoking a cigar. This proves that the use of tobacco prolongs life.

Sidney Smith once rebuked a swearing visitor by saying: "Let us assume that everything and everybody are damned, and proceed with our subject."

The Society Elections.

The election for medallists in the two societies came off on Saturday last. These elections are held every year and the medals are given to the students who, in the eyes of their fellow-students, excel in the various branches of public speaking. Each society gives three: The Eumenian Society, to the best orator; the best debater and the best declaimer; the Philanthropic Society, to the best debater, declaimer and essayist. In the case of the medal for the best essayist, the essays are forwarded to some disinterested person who decides upon their respective merits. The election resulted as follows:

K. E. Society.
Orator's medal to L. W. Dick,
Debater's " to J. H. Lumpkin,
Declaimer's " to J. R. Oeland.

Phi. Society.
Debater's medal to R. E. Ryburn,
Declaimers " to T. B. Finley,
Essay-at " not decided.

The medals will be presented at the conclusion of the exercises on Wednesday night of commencement. We hope to be able to announce the result of the contest for the essayist's medal at an early day. The contest for some of the medals was very warm and the fortunate young gentlemen are to be congratulated.

Davidson comes to the front There is an old woman here that claims to be over a hundred years old. Her birth, occurred so long ago that the exact time has been forgotten. She is probably the oldest person in the county.
