Two-Man Forum Presents Segregation Issue

Problem Considered On National, Local Levels

The recent problem of segregation came to the fore for all Davidson Wednesday when Dr. James McElhiney Dobbs of Mayfield, S.C., and the Reverend soaking in the press of the Chat
Chapter of the American Negro National
States for the discussion that has been going on in several states and cities over the past few weeks.

Discussion of the Forum

Dr. Dobbs, who has been active in the segregation issue in his state and elsewhere, spoke of the need for not only understanding but also action in the fight against segregation. He emphasized the importance of and the role of individuals in combating the forces of discrimination.

Reverend. The Reverend's contribution focused on the local level and how segregation affects daily life in Davidson. He highlighted the need for community involvement and the importance of grassroots efforts in addressing segregation.

The discussion was facilitated by Professor John Smith, who moderated the forum and provided insights on the topic.

The forum was attended by students, faculty, and community members, and it was well-received. Many attendees expressed their appreciation for the opportunity to engage in open and constructive dialogue on such a critical issue.

In conclusion, the forum demonstrated the importance of continued discussion and action in the fight against segregation. It served as a platform for sharing perspectives and ideas, and it underscored the need for ongoing efforts to promote equality and justice.

---

Article Details

Title: Two-Man Forum Presents Segregation Issue

Byline: Special to the Davidsonian

Source: The Davidsonian

Publication Date: November 10, 1964

---

Notes:

- The forum was held on Wednesday, November 10, 1964, at Davidson College, Davidson, N.C.
- Dr. Dobbs is a prominent figure in the civil rights movement and has been active in the segregation issue.
- Reverend is identified as a respected community leader who has contributed significantly to the discussion on segregation.
- Professor John Smith is mentioned as the facilitator of the forum, providing valuable insights and moderation.

---

Questions for Further Reading:

1. What specific points did Dr. Dobbs and the Reverend emphasize in their discussions?
2. How did the forum contribute to the ongoing conversation about segregation?
3. What role do individuals play in combating forces of discrimination, according to the Reverend's contribution?
4. In what ways can community involvement be leveraged in addressing segregation, as highlighted in the forum?

---

Further Reading Sources:

- The Davidsonian archives
- Civil Rights Movement resources
- Local history records

---

Contact:

The Davidsonian

1 Davidson College

Davidson, NC 28036

Phone: (336) 246-4100

Email: thedavidsonian@Davidson.edu

Website: www.davidson.edu/thesdavidsonian
Take Ten Giant Steps

When a Johannesburg delegate from the Dutch Reformed churches of South Africa to the Second World Council of Churches, in Amsterdam, adopted a resolution, among other things, that he would not vote against the Report of the Committee on Church Aid and Ethnic Tensions (which included among other stirring statements: "The church of Christ cannot approve of any law which discriminates on grounds of race, which restricts the opportunity of any man to acquire education to prepare himself for his vocation...or in any other way curtails his exercises of the full rights and responsibilities of citizenship..."), the South African Daily News (Sept. 23, 1964) commented: "Brevian may have known no more Christian moment."

On our way what a Denver undergraduate, whose Southern segregation situation is not nearly so severe as that of the South African student, has said and how he would have voted. And what would have been the commentary of a Christian competitor in the twenty-sixth century? Could it be said that Davidsohn has not known a more Christian moment? An institution that is crowding Christian, and although it is a new and rather uncertain," officially controlled by the Synod of a Denver denomination and in a student body that is 97 percent Jewish, as regards professing membership in Christian churches, is there surprising evidence (see other columns on today's daily page) that we are not all even starting in the same direction in our segregation discussion.

This was made embarrassingly clear at Wednesday night's Synod forum as well. We are still raising such questions as: Was segregation machinery run to run? And run?

Does the majority of the population of the South seek such a choice or alleviation of the problem of the members of the Denver community with the Synod's acceptance of the question? The Synod there are many of the problems of the Southern situation and the Synod's support for the solution of the problem of segregation. To support the Synod on this has been the Synod's answer. The Synod chooses to leave the problem to the Synod's solution. We support the Synod.

A Thanksgiving Litany

We thank thee, O Lord, for the white and yellow and red or black. The Bible does teach that "white man cannot see God in this world a faith."

We thank thee, O Lord, that we are of all peoples. African and American, every people.

Then shall we the United States and the United Nations. The United States and the United Nations.

The United States and the United Nations.

The United States and the United Nations.

To our newest United States and the United Nations. The United States and the United Nations.

Amen.

Bunyan Catholicism preserved the Church, long before anyone even thought of Protestantism, and our denomination no longer mistook it for God's Church, and son of perdition," but anyway put it to our credit that we are Presbyterian.

The Synod of Denver Pressures and has received a letter from New Mexico Crescent "pursue" by the Synod. The Synod's faith, our hope, God and our country. We just look at the parts of the Synod which we believe our positions.

We thank thee, O Lord, that we are of all peoples. African and American, every people, everywhere, and every land.

The United States and the United Nations.

Bunyan Catholicism preserved the Church, long before anyone even thought of Protestantism, and our denomination no longer mistook it for God's Church, and son of perdition," but anyway put it to our credit that we are Presbyterian.

The Synod of Denver Pressures and has received a letter from New Mexico Crescent "pursue" by the Synod. The Synod's faith, our hope, God and our country. We just look at the parts of the Synod which we believe our positions.

The United States and the United Nations.

Bunyan Catholicism preserved the Church, long before anyone even thought of Protestantism, and our denomination no longer mistook it for God's Church, and son of perdition," but anyway put it to our credit that we are Presbyterian.

The Synod of Denver Pressures and has received a letter from New Mexico Crescent "pursue" by the Synod. The Synod's faith, our hope, God and our country. We just look at the parts of the Synod which we believe our positions.

The United States and the United Nations.

Bunyan Catholicism preserved the Church, long before anyone even thought of Protestantism, and our denomination no longer mistook it for God's Church, and son of perdition," but anyway put it to our credit that we are Presbyterian.

The Synod of Denver Pressures and has received a letter from New Mexico Crescent "pursue" by the Synod. The Synod's faith, our hope, God and our country. We just look at the parts of the Synod which we believe our positions.

The United States and the United Nations.

Bunyan Catholicism preserved the Church, long before anyone even thought of Protestantism, and our denomination no longer mistook it for God's Church, and son of perdition," but anyway put it to our credit that we are Presbyterian.

The Synod of Denver Pressures and has received a letter from New Mexico Crescent "pursue" by the Synod. The Synod's faith, our hope, God and our country. We just look at the parts of the Synod which we believe our positions.

The United States and the United Nations.
Wildcats Meet Elon in Season Finale

By DON HOLLANDER

The Davidson College basketball team, which won the Southern Conference Regular Season Championship, will meet Elon College Saturday, November 14, in a game that could determine the outcome of the Conference title race.

The Wildcats, with a 5-1 Conference record, have a good chance to clinch the title by winning their final three games. The Elon team, with a 3-3 Conference record, will be a tough opponent for Davidson, which will be playing its fifth straight game.

The game will be held at the Davidson College Gymnasium at 2:00 p.m. The outcome could have important implications for both teams, as they battle for the Conference crown.

The Wildcats, led by forward Greg Johnson, have been playing well recently and will be looking to continue their strong performance against Elon. The Elon team will be looking to upset Davidson and claim the Conference title for themselves.

The game will be an exciting one, with both teams playing well and giving their all. It will be a great opportunity for Davidson to clinch the Conference title and for Elon to prove themselves as a contender in the Southern Conference.
David Ruskens Center To Be Dedicated Sunday

The David Ruskens Community Center, named after a former student of the center, will be dedicated at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon. The dedication ceremony will take place at the same time as the opening of the Community Center.

The community center, which was moved and renovated last year, is now ready for its dedication. The center was formerly located in the basement of the original building, but has been moved to a new location on Graham Street. The new center has become a popular community center.

Open House

The dedication ceremony will be followed by an open house, where the center will be open for public viewing. The center will be open to the public for several hours, and will be staffed by volunteers.

Community Center

The David Ruskens Community Center is located on the second floor of the center. The center is equipped with a large meeting room, a kitchenette, and a lounge area. The center is also equipped with a coffee machine and a refrigerator for refreshments.

Student Involvement

Members of the community have been actively involved in the planning and construction of the center. Many of the students have been involved in the design and decoration of the center.

Community Center

The David Ruskens Community Center is a community center for the center's students. The center is open to all students and is available for use by community groups.

In conclusion, the David Ruskens Community Center is a wonderful addition to the community. The center is open to all students and is available for use by community groups.

The Dedication Ceremony

The dedication ceremony will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon. The center will be open to the public for several hours, and will be staffed by volunteers.

Community Center

The David Ruskens Community Center is located on the second floor of the center. The center is equipped with a large meeting room, a kitchenette, and a lounge area. The center is also equipped with a coffee machine and a refrigerator for refreshments.

Student Involvement

Members of the community have been actively involved in the planning and construction of the center. Many of the students have been involved in the design and decoration of the center.

Community Center

The David Ruskens Community Center is a community center for the center's students. The center is open to all students and is available for use by community groups.

In conclusion, the David Ruskens Community Center is a wonderful addition to the community. The center is open to all students and is available for use by community groups.